Stephanie A. Altig
Deputy Attorney General
Idaho State Police

Dear Ms. Altig,

We have received your letter of July 1, 2013 regarding Idaho's new enhanced concealed weapons license and reciprocity between the State of Idaho and the State of Nebraska.

Since 2009, the State of Nebraska has recognized concealed weapons licenses issued by the State of Idaho. We recently reviewed the newly enacted requirements for obtaining an enhanced concealed weapons license (3302K), and again reviewed the requirements for obtaining a standard concealed weapons license (3302). Pursuant to Nebraska statutes, this office has determined that the requirements to obtain either a 3302 or 3302K license meet or exceed the standards established in the Nebraska Concealed Handgun Permit Act, Neb. Rev. Stat. § 69-2427, et. seq. As such, Nebraska will recognize both 3302 and 3302K licenses.

There are, however, limits to such recognition. The State of Nebraska will only recognize permits issued to persons 21 years of age or older, and recognition of other states' concealed weapons permits is limited to the carrying of a concealed handgun. Unlike Idaho, Nebraska law does not authorize the concealed carrying of any weapon other than a handgun.

If you have any further questions, please don't hesitate to ask.

Sincerely,

JON BRUNING
Attorney General
